

WOMAN FREED HERE
IN BALTIMORE TOILS

Repeating offenses in Baltimore for which she was arrested and later released on bond in this city four months ago, Mrs. Eva Hermanson, of Washington and Baltimore, is in jail in the latter city today awaiting trial on a number of serious charges. She is said to have passed scores of bogus checks in Washington and Baltimore and to have collected money while posing as a worker for a missionary band.

Mrs. Hermanson was arrested here four months ago on complaints received from Senator Lee S. Overman and Congressman Moses P. Kinkaid. She was charged with having forged checks on five separate occasions and to have cashed three checks in the name of Senator Overman. Arrested by Detectives Mullen and O'Brien, of the Washington police, she was later released on a $500 bond. When arrested here she gave her address simply as "Baltimore."

She was apprehended in Baltimore last night after a number of complaints had been received from department stores and private citizens by the police of that city.

FATHER FREED BY "UNWRITTEN LAW"

LONDON, June 27.—The "unwritten law" won quick acquittal for John Nicholls, a Cornish miner, accused of the death of Capt. Ernest F. W. Schiff, who was described by counsel for the defense as "one of the most prominent men in the Bohemian set in London." Captain Schiff was a friend of the late Billie Carleton, beautiful actress, and his death was followed by sensational exposures regarding affairs in London's fast set.

He went on a boating trip to Carnaby bay, little fishing town, and there met Nicholls' daughter, the village beauty.

Nicholls accused the handsome Londoner of attempting to lure the young girl away to "a hellish life in London." The two fought and Captain Schiff died a few days later of his injuries.
